

Stephanie Wilson

Director – SK Chase

Stephanie was born and brought up in Edinburgh, beginning her career in the Hospitality industry in the city's Carlton Highland Hotel when she was 17.

She moved through various roles in the sector before becoming Revenue Manager for the Town House Company – a collection of luxury boutique hotels based in Edinburgh.

Stephanie met her business partner Kaye Taylor at the Town House Company, and SK Chase Ltd began trading in June 2004. SK Chase provides software and associated services, enabling luxury hotels to sell gift vouchers through their own websites.

The company has received several awards for innovation, and counts prestigious venues such as The Ritz and Gleneagles, and successful hotel groups like Macdonald Hotels and The Rocco Forte Collection among its clients.
